2013 EPNS membership subscription fees

Thank you to all the members who have made their 2013 annual EPNS subscription fee. If you haven't yet made your payment, I attach a copy of a letter the President, Treasurer and Chair of the Membership Committee which includes more information and links to the relevant website pages. You will note that we have introduced lower fees, more choice regarding journal subscription and an offer, for a limited period only, of a newly published European symptom-based textbook of Paediatric Neurology free of charge (except postage and packing) to paid-up members of The Society.

New EPNS membership

We are always looking to welcome new members to our society, so please encourage your colleagues to join us. Bearing in mind the new attractive fees and limited offer for the above mentioned free publication (except postage and packaging), there has never been a better time to join the EPNS! We now have a new convenient on-line application form on our website <http://www.epns.info/> For more information email info@epns.info . Many thanks.

Also, please note the following forthcoming conferences and educational meetings that have recently been added/in the process of being added to our EPNS website <http://www.epns.info/>:

- 27 February - 1 March 2013, ADHD Worldwide -1st joint meeting, Tel Aviv, Israel
- 6 -10 March 2013, International conference on cerebral palsy and developmental medicine, Lucknow, India
