

MAGYAR SZEREPLÉS A 2017-ES ESC KONGRESSZUSON BARCELONÁBAN

Az Európai Kardiológusok Társasága idén augusztus 26-a és 30-a között rendezte meg éves kongresszusát Barcelonában. Az idei kongresszusra 10804 absztrakt érkezett be, melyből 4515 került elfogadásra. A magyar absztraktok is hasonló arányban kerültek elfogadásra, a 99 beküldött absztraktunkból 47-et fogadtak el.

Nyolc üléselnökséget, hét előadást és negyvenhat posztert mutattak be Barcelonában a magyar kardiológusok. Huszonhat posztert a Városmajori Szív- és Érgyógyászati Klinika, hatot a Pécsi Tudományegyetem, kettőt-kettőt a Szent Imre Kórház és a Csongrád Megyei Egészségügyi Ellátóközpont (Hódmezővásárhely), egyet-egyet a Debreceni Egyetem, a Szegedi Tudományegyetem, a Semmelweis Egyetem II. sz. Szülészeti és Nőgyógyászati Klinika, a Gottsegen György Országos Kardiológiai Intézet, a Balatonfüredi Állami Szívkórház és a Bács-Kiskun Megyei Szent Kereszt Kórház (Kalocsa) munkatársai mutattak be. Négy különban dolgozó magyar kolléga absztraktja is bemutatásra került.

ÜLÉSELNÖKSÉG (8)

- Tóth Kálmán/Csanádi Zoltán: Revascularisation in stable coronary artery disease
- Ferdinándy Péter: Dissecting the secretome in the "omics" era
- Koller Ákos: Coronary no-reflow: from bench to bedside
- Koller Ákos: Endothelial function and the microcirculation
- Merkely Béla: The future therapy of heart failure: shall we find the answers in the crystal ball?
- Merkely Béla: Four decades of ICD therapy - Lessons and dilemmas
- Merkely Béla: Clinical Trial Update 2
- Maurovich-Horvat Pál: State of Cardiovascular Imaging in 2017

ELŐADÁSOK (7)

- Ferdinndy Pter: Multi-omics strategies to identify novel therapeutic targets for cardioprotection.
- Ferdinndy Pter: MicroRNAs in cardioprotection.
- Kutyifa Valentina: ICD - Sudden cardiac death prevention in the next decade
- Kutyifa Valentina: The role of an ICD in high-risk patients with relatively preserved left ventricular ejection fraction
- Maurovich-Horvat Pl: The intricate relationship of plaque, ischemia and prognosis: lessons from CT
- Merkely Bla: ICD utilization across Europe – Trends, inequalities and challenges. The EHRA White Book
- Merkely Bla: Legal aspects of disqualification recommendations for elite athletes with cardiovascular disease
